

Conference Program

7th - 9th of June 2013

Jagiellonian University

Institute of Sociology and Institute of Religious Studies

FRIDAY 7TH OF JUNE 2013
AUDITORIUM MAXIMUM UJ
UL. KRUPNICZA 33
SALA SEMINARYJNA & KONFERENCYJNA

13.00 OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE

Maria-Jolanta Flis, Vice-Rector for University Development, Jagiellonian University

13.15 PLENARY LECTURE I – Attachment to place and people: Interdisciplinary perspective on migration

Halina Grzymala-Moszczyńska, Institute of Religious Studies, Jagiellonian University

13.45 PLENARY LECTURE II – School as the place of cultures' contact: Immigrant child in Warsaw high school

Ewa Nowicka, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Chair: Dorota Praszalowicz, Institute of American Studies and Polish Diaspora, Jagiellonian University

14.30 SESSION I – THE ROLE OF RELIGION IN THE MIGRATION PROCESS

Chair: Halina Grzymala-Moszczyńska, Institute of Religious Studies, Jagiellonian University

Second-generation Koreans in West Germany: Generation of heirs or fashioner of a faith of their own?

Sabrina Weiß, Ruhr-University Bochum

Religiosity and values among children of former Soviet Union migrants

Agata Goździewicz, Institute of Psychology, University of Gdańsk

Anna Tychmanowicz, Institute of Psychology, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin

Beata Zarzycka, Institute of Psychology, The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin

The influence of religion on the process of identity development of children of migrants in Germany

Susanne Johansson, German Youth Institute

The role of religion for migrant families. The case of Poles in the United Kingdom.

Paweł Hess, Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

14.30 SESSION II - IDENTITY STRATEGIES OF CHILDREN MIGRANTS

Chair: Agnieszka Trąbka, Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

Migration and identity: A qualitative analysis

Ekaterina Mace-Nazina, University of Cambridge

Identity strategies of second generation Polish return migrants.

Katarzyna Wójcikowska, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Children of Sanchez 50 years later. Re-emigration of young Mexicans

Agnieszka Radziwinowicz, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Belongings: Italy's second generations, cultural identities and media
Justyna Siuta

Being the other
Joanna Kwiatowska, Warsaw School of Social Sciences and Humanities

16.30 COFFEE BREAK

17.00 SESSION III: RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE CONTEXT OF MIGRATION

Chair: Malgorzata Sacha, Institute of Religious Studies, Jagiellonian University

Children caught between paradoxes of religious education in a multicultural context: Ethnographic research in a Belgian Catholic primary school

Marie Campigotto, Laboratoire d'Anthropologie Sociale et Culturelle, Université de Liège

Religious education in Polish schools in the context of intercultural dialogue
Adam Anczyk, Institute of Religious Studies, Jagiellonian University

Mechanisms of exclusion of migrant children in schools
Katarzyna Kubin, Jan Świerszcz,
Fundacja Na Rzecz Różnorodności Społecznej (Foundation For Social Diversity)

Transformation of Polish Scouting Organization under the influence of new migrants' children
Karol Leszczyński, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

17.00 SESSION IV: PARENTING IN MIGRANTS' FAMILIES

Chair: Sylwia Urbańska, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Migrating Europe and its children
Katarzyna Waniek, Institute of Sociology, University of Łódź

Child Welfare? Polish children in the context of migration
Krystyna Slany, Magdalena Ślusarczyk, Karolina Nikielska-Sekula,
Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

Parent-child separation in Angolan transnational families
Luena Marinho, Institute of Social Sciences, University of Lisbon

Centrality of children in the narratives of Polish migrant mothering
Paula Pustulka, Bangor University, UK

Czech nanny as a "window to majority" for children of Vietnamese immigrants in the Czech Republic
Adéla Souralová, Masaryk University in Brno and Comenius University in Bratislava

19.30 WELCOME DINNER AT COLLEGIUM MAIUS

SATURDAY, 8TH OF JUNE 2013
COLLEGIUM NOVUM UJ
UL. GOŁĘBIA 24
AULA & SALA SENACKA, 1ST FLOOR

9.00 SESSION V – BENEFITS AND CHALLENGES OF BILINGUALISM

Chair: Władysław Miodunka, Center for Polish Language and Culture in the World, Jagiellonian University

The situation of migrant, return migrant and immigrant students in Malopolska's schools based on survey.
Agata Szybura, Faculty of Polish Studies, Jagiellonian University

What may happen with migrants' children mother tongue? Mechanisms and consequences of second language immersion
Joanna Durlik, Jagiellonian University

Cultural frame switching by bicultural and bilingual Polish-American students
Anna Owczarska-Osinska, Ośrodek Naukowo- Terapeutyczny Ogrody Zmian

Intercultural education of multilingual children - methodological aspects.
Mateusz Warchal, Faculty of Education, University of Bielsko-Biala

9.00

SESSION VI – PSYCHOLOGICAL PROBLEMS OF MIGRANTS' CHILDREN AND THIRD CULTURE KIDS

Chair: Sheila Melzak, Baobab Centre for Young Survivors in Exile

Problems of children that had to leave their homeland for 5 – 8 years due to change of parents work place
Maria Moneta-Malewska, psychotherapist

Relationship networks as predictors of mental health in early adolescence among immigrant youth
Ye Ri Choi, School of Social Work, McGill University, Canada

Growing up as a Global Nomad « It takes a village to raise a child »
Emmanuelle Niollet-Metcalf, ethnopsychiatrist

Who am I, where do I belong, what is my faith? – psychological and spiritual problems of Third Culture Kids
Kornelia Zakrzewska-Wirkus, psychologist, Jagiellonian University

Organization of an international school as a response to Third Culture Kids psychological needs.
Agnieszka Hennel-Brzozowska, Pedagogical University, Krakow.

11.00

COFFEE BREAK

11.30

SESSION VII - SEPARATION WITH PARENTS AND TRANSNATIONAL FAMILIES

Chair: Magdalena Ślusarczyk, Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

Refugees' children – family separation and reunification as challenges
Luzia Jurt, Fachhochschule Nordwestschweiz FHNW
Christophe Roulin, Fachhochschule Nordwestschweiz FHNW

Children left behind and their place in the social structure – a case study of Babica village
Joanna Kulpińska, Institute of American Studies and Polish Diaspora, Jagiellonian University

Project CulTrain – Cultural Orientation Trainings for (former) Unaccompanied Minors. An integration measure in Austria tackling adaptation problems of young refugees
Katharina Benedetter, International Organization for Migration
Marianne Dobner, International Organization for Migration

Euro-orphanhood in practice - to which extent this is a problem for migrant families in which the parents lack the maturity?
Agnieszka Świdorska, Postdoctoral Research Scientist, Benefits of Psychotherapy.

11.30

SESSION VIII - VIOLENCE AND DISCRIMINATION OF CHILDREN MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

Chair: Halina Grzymala-Moszczyńska, Institute of Religious Studies, Jagiellonian University

What can we learn from child and adolescent asylum seekers about development, change, sequential traumatising, vulnerability, survival and resilience?

Sheila Melzak, Clinical Director Baobab Centre for Young Survivors in Exile

Interethnic violence in schools: the case of Slovenia

Tjaša Žakelj, Zorana Medarić, University of Primorska, Science and Research Centre

Multiple Discriminations against Afghan Girls in Iran

Behnaz Tavakoli, Free University, Berlin

Current discourses on Children's Agency and rights and their application to the case of undocumented & unaccompanied migrant children in South Africa

Lena Sophia Opfermann, Centre for Applied Human Rights, University of York

Discrimination and state violence against children migrants in Polish detention centers.

Joanna Grzymala-Moszczyńska, Institute of Psychology, Jagiellonian University

Karolina Łukasiewicz, Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

13.45 LUNCH BREAK

14.30 PLENARY LECTURE III – Education for a life-world or a hegemonic construct? Schooling in the British Empire, in France and in Canada, 1830s-2000s

Dirk Hoerder, Arizona State University

15.30 COFFEE BREAK

16.00 SESSION IX - WAYS OF (NON) BELONGING: TRANSNATIONAL FAMILY EXPERIENCES OF FILIPINO CHILD MIGRANTS IN EUROPE, NORTH AMERICA, AND ASIA

Chair: Sylwia Urbańska, Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Circulation of children within the kinship group: Family ties experience of young Filipino immigrants in France

Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot, Catholic University of Louvain

(Re)making parent-child relations: Experiences of "family reunification" of Filipino children in Italy

Itaru Nagasaka, Hiroshima University

Dislocating dreams of family reunification: The case of Filipino transmigrant mothers and children in Toronto

Chiho Ogaya, Yokohama National University

Living on the margins of transnationalism: Japanese Filipino child immigrants in Japan

Nobue Suzuki, Chiba University

16.00 SESSION X - MULTICULTURALISM IN POLISH SCHOOLS

Chair: Adam Anczyk, Institute of Religious Studies, Jagiellonian University

Multiculturalism in schools – chosen and forced.

Liliana Róż-Słowik, Institute of Psychology, Jagiellonian University

Public or international? Migrating students in two types of schools of Poznań.

Izabela Czerniejewska

Department of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń

Multicultural class – how to teach children to live in diverse society in few practical exercises.

Agata M. Szczepaniak, child psychologist, coach and teacher

Teachers' preparation for work with students from multicultural families and returning migrants' children
Lukrecja Rychlicka, psychologist

Selected educational problems in a Polish migration family
Iwona Waldzińska, Institute of Neophilology The State School of Higher Education in Oświęcim

SUNDAY, 9TH OF JUNE 2013

COLLEGIUM NOVUM UJ

UL. GOŁĘBIA 24

AULA & SALA SENACKA, 1ST FLOOR

9.00

SESSION XI – MIGRANTS’ CHILDREN IN FOREIGN EDUCATION SYSTEM

Chair: Agnieszka Hennel-Brzozowska, Pedagogical University, Kraków

Polish migrant children and education in Ireland – benefits and challenges
Natalia Mazurkiewicz, IRC Government of Ireland Scholar, Department of Sociology, University of Limerick

The Muslim diaspora in front of the new generations: what are the educational challenges in a new immigration country?
Viviana Premazzi, Roberta Ricucci,
Universite di Torino, Italy Forum Internazionale ed Europeo di Ricerche sull'Immigrazione (FIERI), Turin, Italy

Polish school in Great Britain – paradoxes of a cosmopolitan institution
Agnieszka Malek , Dorota Praszalowicz
Institute of American Studies and Polish Diaspora, Jagiellonian University

Polish children in British schools. Institutional challenges and solutions
Malgorzata Kulakowska, Institute of Political Science and International Relations, Jagiellonian University

Social integration of Polish adolescents from Greek and Polish high schools in Athens
Monika Rerak-Zampou, Patras University, Greece

9.00

SESSION XII - CONSTRUCTIONS OF HOME AND BELONGING

Chair: Agnieszka Trąbka, Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

Childhood travels: home and transnational tourism
Kanwal Mand, University of Brighton

The families we make and the ties we break: Identity and transnational adoption in South Asian diasporic writing
Holly Morgan, Marie Curie Research Fellow, Westfaelische Wilhelms-Universitaet, Münster, Germany

Constructing the image of homeland among Belarusian Immigrant children in Poland
Anna Dolinska, Institute for Social Studies, University of Warsaw

Life of an immigrant as depicted in the lyrics of musicians of South Asian descent
Katarzyna Jakubowska, South Asian Studies, Jagiellonian University

Migration and its difficulties
Niloofar Mohammad Naim

11.00

COFFEE BREAK

11.15

SESSION XIII - EDUCATIONAL POLICY TOWARDS CHILDREN MIGRANTS

Chair: Dirk Hoerder, Arizona State University

Child protection and the educational system - challenges of children migrants to Norway
Hans-Jørgen Wallin Weihe, Lillehammer University College

Students in the context of migration attending Hungarian public education
Beatrix Bukus, Foundation for Intercultural Education

The role of education systems in integration of migrant children in Europe
Hanna Siarova, Researcher at Public Policy and Management Institute, Lithuania

Migrant pupils in the Polish system of education – a new challenge for educational authorities
Ewa Pogorzala, The State Higher School of Vocational Education in Zamość

Migrants' children in Polish schools – issues and opportunities.
Ewa Kobylecka, Centre for Comparative Studies of Civilizations, Jagiellonian University

Acculturation and contents of gender stereotypes in children of Polish migrants in Norway
Natasza Kosakowska-Berezecka, Małgorzata Lipowska, Paulina Pawlicka
Institute of Psychology, University of Gdansk

11.15 SESSION XIV - THIRD CULTURE KIDS' IDENTITIES AND BIOGRAPHIES

Chair: Katarzyna Waniek, Institute of Sociology, University of Łódź

Was John Calvin a TCK?: Applying modern socio-scientific research on highly mobile populations to historical studies.
Raymond A. Powell, LCC International University

Western by day, Asian by night: the experiences of "Asian" students at an international school in Indonesia
Danau Tanu, School of Social Sciences, University of Western Australia

Transnational identity formations of adult children migrants and Third Culture Kids
Claudia Vorheyer, Institute of Sociology, University of Zurich

Biographies of adult TCKs – nomads or homecomers?
Agnieszka Trąbka, Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University

Born a frequent flyer: The mobility and identity production of Third Culture Kids
Gabrielle Désilets, School of Archeology and Anthropology, The Australian National University

13.30 PANEL DISCUSSION

14.30 LUNCH